Port bulk terminal approved

Governor Daniel Walker has signed legislation enabling the Tri-City Regional Port District to build a bulk commodity terminal at the local port. It was learned today from State Senator Sam M. Vandalabene. The $2,750,000 shipping, receiving and storage terminal is to be constructed by the port district, utilizing interest-free funds provided by the Illinois Capital Development Board. All of the financing is to be repaid to the state over a period of about ten years. Extensive response has been received by local port officials from industries indicating they would utilize the terminal. The project was designed so as to avoid direct costs to the state government, and it did not require inclusion in the 1975-76 state budget, which has been reduced six percent by the governor.

E-W Gateway to study bridge traffic flows

An investigation into problems resulting from vehicular traffic crossings on area bridges spanning the Mississippi River has been ordered by the board of directors of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council at the request of Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City, chairman of the Madison County Board and a member of the council. The board action was taken last week after Hagnauer said drivers are using the free Poplar Street bridge almost exclusively instead of the area's toll bridges, including McKinley Bridge at Venice, and Martin Luther King, Eds and MacArthur Bridges between East St. Louis and St. Louis, because the freeway system is tied into the Poplar Street bridge. The result is severe traffic congestion, Hagnauer told the board.

Charged in robbery

A Granite City man was arrested and charged with armed robbery and another man is being sought as the result of the robbery of two men in a tavern parking lot at Cottage Hills at 9:30 p.m. Thursday. James S. Cook, 25, of 2325 Rock Road, was arrested by Granite City police who stopped a car fitting the description of one used in the robbery. Authorities said the two victims, Fred Crook of Alton and Gary Camner of Brighton, were sitting in their car at the Hi-Hat tavern in Cottage Hills when two men approached them, displayed a gun and demanded their wallets. The robbers were reported to have taken $300 from Crook and $60 from Camner, fleeing in an older model car toward Route 11.

Victim stabbed in attempted robbery

Edward P. Rudolph, 20, of 2727 Warren Ave. was treated for a knife wound in the arm and released from St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday morning. Rudolph reported he was walking in the alley between the 4800 block of Kirkpatrick Homes and E. 27th Street at 12:40 a.m. Monday when two men approached him, one from in front and one from behind. The assailant in front told him to hand over his wallet. Rudolph said he kicked the man behind him and when he turned to strike the man in front

"If something isn't done soon, this situation is going to get worse, not better," he said. "The economic growth of the entire region depends on good access across the river." The Poplar Street bridge now has a daily traffic volume of 101,450 vehicles, which is projected to increase to 118,928 by 1995, and the design capacity of the bridge is only 95,000 vehicles per day. The other bridges presently carry traffic far below their design capacity. The cost of putting in a new program to make efficient use of the other bridges is estimated at less than $20,000,000, which is far less than building a new bridge with the design capacity of Poplar. Hagnauer said other parts of the country have been able to get special appropriations for local projects under the Federal Aid Highway Act. As examples, he cited special funding for projects in Kansas City, Indiana, and Texas that totaled over $200,000,000.

"I know that members of the Illinois area congressional delegation are aware of and concerned about our problem," he said. "With the proper statistics and background information, I am sure we can build a strong case to take to both the Missouri and Illinois delegations" in an effort to get the money to put into this program.

GC tops $1 million in sales tax

Granite City received $1,066,686 in municipal sales tax revenues during the 1975 fiscal year that ended June 30, according to a report last week by the state Department of Revenue. It was the first time Granite City sales tax income exceeded the $1 million mark in a full year's collection.

The city of Madison received $131,581 for the 1975 fiscal year, and Venice collected $34,270. Madison County received $928,957 during the fiscal period.

Charged in robbery

The victims gave police the license number of the car and description of the two men which were broadcast to other law enforcement units. Two Granite City officers on patrol near Rock Road and FA Route 151 saw a car fitting the description of the one sought turn off Rock Road into Rock Road. The car was stopped in the 2300 block of Rock Road at 10:50 p.m., less than an hour after the robbery. Sheriff's deputies said the victims identified Cook as one of the two men. The second man sought by officers was described as 26 to 28 years of age, thin face, dark brown, wavy hair and wearing light blue trousers. The other man was reported about six feet tall, about 190 pounds, long black hair, in his early 20's, wearing a white tee shirt and dark pants.

A grant of $1,225,000 for the proposed construction of an overpass between downtown and West Granite City has been budgeted by the Federal Aid to Urban System (FAUS) with prospects of additional funds to become available later, Mayor Paul Schuler said Friday. "Funds for the overpass are budgeted under a FAUS program that makes grants available for municipal improvements over a five-year period. Mayor Schuler said Granite City expects to receive more than $2 million under this program to help finance the cost of an overpass designed to relieve traffic tieups caused at the railroad tracks. Mayor Schuler reported at the same time that an environmental impact study also is now under way by M. W. Engineers & Architects, St. Louis, which has been retained to make a site study to determine where the overpass should be located in relation to convenience and cost. No cost estimates of the project have yet been made. Schuler said engineers have informed the city that preparation of design plans and specifications may begin by April 1 next year, assuming there is no delay in obtaining approval of the impact statement by the Environmental Protection Agency. As a result, he said, it is possible the city may look forward to a bid letting next June.

Howard B. Dillon of the M. W. engineering firm, in a letter to City Engineer Monroe Brewer, said last week, "If the project is approved as a non-major action which will not require a public hearing, then it is possible to have plans and specifications completed by April 1, and is conditionally based upon utility and railroad agreements, city and state agreements and right of way clearances. "One could then anticipate a June letting date."

The engineering study was begun last March with public informational meetings in which the engineers and city officials sought public opinion as to the most feasible site for the overpass which would extend from the downtown area over the railroad tracks and thus connect traffic with FA Route 151. At those meetings 19th Street appeared as the most favored location, although the use of Niedringhaus Avenue or 20th Street also was considered.

Morrison parking ban

An ordinance prohibiting parking on the south side of Morrison Road has been passed by the Nameki Town Board of Auditors and Nameki Township Highway Commissioner Albert Bell was requested to erect no parking signs between Marvill Road and the Alton & Southern Railroad tracks. Residents who live along Morrison Road had complained that parking on both sides of the street during Granite City High School North activities and during ball games on the North fields did not leave enough room for large vehicles to use the road. They petitioned the town board to help relieve the problem. The auditors explained that the township can only post the signs. It will be the responsibility of the Madison County Sheriff's Department to enforce the ordinance. The board discussed a drainage problem at Parkview Drive and Snowbird Lane where a ditch is flooding one man's lawn and creating a health hazard. The auditors agreed they have "a moral obligation to try to solve this definite problem," but were unable to reach a ready solution. One auditor commented the board would be to dig a ditch down the block toward the Alton & Southern Railroad tracks which would be in violation of a court order restraining the township from draining property in that direction. The board was told that an Angela Drive resident has complained to officials about a tractor-truck which has been parking on that street. The board said they would accept a petition for no parking zone, if the majority of the residents in that block would request it. It was noted that a one-ton load limit on Angela Drive prohibits the truck being there, but that ordinance has not been enforced by the sheriff's department. The board discussed a vacant house on Route 162 which has had a fire and is in poor condition. It was agreed to meet with Paul Hawkins, head of the Madison County Pollution Control Department and request permission to allow the Long Lake Fire Department to burn the building down as a training drill. A spokesman for the fire department said he has been (Continued on Page 3)

Train wrecks car at 20th St. crossing

A motorist and a 4-year-old passenger escaped with only minor injuries from a train-car collision Friday morning in which their car was demolished on 20th Street at the railroad tracks. Police reported an eastbound car driven by William Brewer, 54, of 1104 W. Pontoon Road, collided at 9:45 a.m. on the crossing with a Norfolk & Western train. After the impact, the car accelerator stuck causing the car to swing around and strike the train a second time, police reported. Brewer and Denise Wofford, 4, of Sunny Shores, were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where they were admitted for observation and later released after treatment of minor injuries.

AUTO BURGLARY

Jerry Maers, 419 Madison Ave., Madison reported to police that while car was parked behind his insurance and real estate office Thursday, thieves forced the window on the driver side of the car and took $80 in quarters, a .38 caliber revolver valued at $150, a Polaroid camera worth $80, a calculator valued at $145, and a citizen band radio valued at $450. Two screwdrivers, apparently used to force entry, were found inside the auto.

Train wrecks car at 20th St. crossing

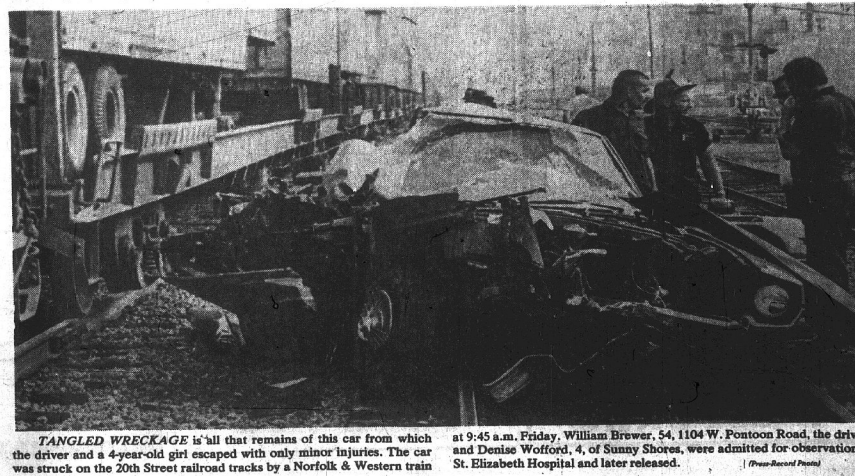

Fred R. Summers, 20, of 2081 14th St., was killed at 12:20 p.m. Friday when the delivery truck he was driving crashed into a guard rail on Interstate 55, south of Bayless Road, and Summers was thrown from the van. St. Louis County police said Gary Dugan, 21, of 1406 State Street, a helper, was able to grab the steering wheel and bring the van under control after Summers was thrown from the vehicle. Dugan reported he was on the floor of the van as he and Summers were returning from making a furniture delivery, when Dugan heard the van scraping along the guard rail and saw Summers thrown from the van. Dugan was treated for minor injuries at St. Joseph Hospital in Kirkwood

Mr. Summers had worked for the Granite City Furniture Co. for the past five months since he was honorably discharged from the United States Army. Prior to going into the Army he attended Venice-Lincoln Technical Center. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Miller of Granite City; two sisters, Mrs. Robert (Rita) Ripper Jr., and Miss DeVonna Miller, both of Granite City, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Della Ann Leonard, also of Granite City. Funeral arrangements are listed in the obituary column.

'90,000 fire damage

An estimated $90,000 damage was done to the contents and building owned by Tony Anselmo, 5000 Third St., Madison, Monday. Firemen were called at 3:30 a.m. and were at the scene until 6 a.m. Cause of the fire is unknown but is believed to have started near a fuse box on the second floor. The two apartments on the second floor were gutted by the flames. Extensive smoke, heat and water damage was done to the first floor which houses Tony and Joe's Lounge, which had been recently remodeled. Damage to the furnace in the basement also was reported by the owner. "I don't know what happened, but it sure wrecked things," Anselmo said. "I expect to reopen the lounge within a couple of weeks. I am happy nobody in the apartments was injured."

TANGLED WRECKAGE is all that remains of this car from which the driver and a 4-year-old girl escaped with only minor injuries. The car was struck on the 20th Street railroad tracks by a Norfolk & Western train at 9:45 a.m. Friday, William Brewer, 54, 1104 W. Pontoon Road, the driver, and Denise Wofford, 4, of Sunny Shores, were admitted for observation at St. Elizabeth Hospital and later released. (Press-Record Photo)

Enterprise competitive, not free, Optimist members told

The competitive enterprise system of the United States is grossly misunderstood by the general public and in particular by the youth of this country.
Clifton E. Blankenship, director of safety and training for the Granite City plant of A. O.
Smith Corp., told the Thursday noon meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club in the YMCA.

"It is the businessman's own fault that the system is not understood better, as we have done very little to explain it to the public," he said.

"We no longer can refer to our system as free enterprise, as there are far too many governmental restrictions to use the term free, however, it is a competitive system."

"The system we have is far better than any other in the world today, and all a person needs to do is to look objectively at the facts of the system and what it has done for this country and compare with other countries."

"If we were to put our country on the same level as Russia we would have to cut all payrolls throughout the country by 75 per cent, send 60 million of our people back to the farms; tear down 75 per cent of all housing; cut steel production by 60 per cent, take 85 per cent of the autos off the road; tear up 14 out of every 15 miles of highway and take out 90 per cent of all telephones. Then we would have what the Russian system has produced for their people," Blankenship asserted.

"A person who studies our competitive system will find it is working better than all known alternatives."

"We in the United States have six per cent of the land mass, six per cent of the population of the world, and 50 per cent of the wealth."

"There are several myths that the general public has been led to believe. It is true that 40 per cent of the American corporations did not pay taxes last year, because the fact is 40 per cent did not show a profit."

"Another myth is that the average business makes 28 per cent profit, while the general public believes it should make only 10 per cent profit; but the fact is the average business makes only a 4.5 per cent profit and has never been over 5.5 per cent."

2 men beaten with ball bats

Paul Tilson, 46, of Highland, was taken to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, last week after he and a companion were beaten by two other men with baseball bats. The incident occurred on McCambridge Avenue between Second and Third Streets, Madison.

Tilson suffered bruises to the back of his head and cuts to the nose and left side of the forehead. He was transferred from St. Elizabeth Hospital to the St. Louis hospital.

Jim Creek, 38, of 2109 Louisa St., who was with Tilson, was treated for a two-inch cut to the left side of his forehead, x-rayed and released.

According to police, two unidentified men between 30 and 40 years of age flagged the victims over to the side of curb in what appeared to be a robbery attempt.

TOOLS STOLEN

Mike E. Wood, 4140 Division
St., Lot 13, reported to Pontoon Beach police at 6:30 p.m.
Wednesday that thieves took a cooler from the porch of his trailer which contained several tools, two grease guns, two tape players and a tackle box with an estimated value of $400.

Seeks witnesses in bicycle injury case

An effort to obtain prosecution of a 9-year-old boy who rode his bicycle into and seriously injured a 61-year-old woman at Kirkpatrick Homes has been unsuccessful, but he is still trying to file charges.
Robert Anderson, 2504 Kirkpatrick Homes, told the Press-Record last week.

The injured woman is Mrs.
Dorothy Darnell, 1209 Kirkpatrick Homes, who was struck by the boy's bicycle, was knocked down and suffered a brain concussion, skull fracture and a cut to the left leg that required 46 stitches.

Anderson said he is convinced the boy's actions were in-tentual, but the youngster told police that he was looking down at the chain on his bicycle when he struck Mrs. Darnell.

According to Anderson, police have failed to take action against the youth because of a lack of witnesses to the incident, which occurred on Aug. 12.

Anderson said he still is seeking witnesses to the incident.
Juvenile officers said they checked out four or five possible witnesses whose names were provided by Anderson, but that none of them would admit having witnessed the incident in which Mrs. Darnell was injured.

The same boy, according to Anderson, has harassed his mother consistently. "He has crawled onto the roof of her apartment, thrown rocks at her and tormented her in other ways," he said.

"I don't know what we have to do to get protection against these and other incidents, but I am going to try to get something done," Anderson added.

Police official joins Kiwanis

George Teller, assistant chief of police of Granite City, was introduced to the Breakfast Kiwanis club at its Thursday morning meeting as a new member by Kiwanian W. F.
"Mick" Strange who recruited him.

Plans were finalized for the club's "hole-in-one" tournament scheduled Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 13 and 14 at the Arlington Golf Club.

The event is open to the public and members of the club are selling tickets for $1 which include a free "Big Mac" at the Granite City and Collinsville
McDonald restaurants.

According to E. Ray Grisham, chairman of the event, several prizes including a color television will be given away at the event.

Strange, chairman of the annual Kiwanis peanut sale to help needy children, announced that the peanuts had been ordered but the exact date of the sale had not been set.

Norman Kinder, president of the club, reviewed the judicial structure in the state of Illinois, including the Circuit, Appellate and Supreme Courts.

Tools, auto items taken from shed

Numerous items were stolen from the home and shed of John Kristanovich, 2024 Twelfth St., during a burglary last week.

A bag of charcoal was thrown through a bathroom window to gain entry to the house, which was ransacked and vandalized.
A new storm door, two windows, two bird baths, windmills and a cord were damaged.

The shed also was forced open. Taken were tools, oil, an oil filter, wood filler, a tire pump, paint, a hammock, auto polish, two lawn chairs, charcoal and other items.

neath the Statehouse Dome as one of the shrewdest politicians in Illinois.

He rarely makes an unwise political move, as proven by his climb up the political ladder from state representative to state treasurer to U.S. senator.

Stevenson's ambitions undoubtedly run higher, and the most practical and immediate way to advance them is to work in tandem with Daley. Daley, for his part, has spoken highly of Stevenson as a possible nominee for president and has, in fact, pretty much made the Illinois primary to other presidential hopefuls.

There are skeptics who say Daley has done this to assure his own control of the Illinois delegation at the 1976 Democratic Convention and thus his big say in whom the eventual nominee for president may be.

But there is a majority consensus that Daley would like to see Stevenson on the national ticket not only would own any hope of Walker getting there but the prospect of such a development would immensely strengthen prospects for Illinois Democrats to dump Walker in the primary and replace him with a candidate deemed capable of winning for governor in November.

Not only would this enhance Daley's already great political esteem, but it also would resolve a strictly Illinois problem — Walker.

Labor Day outlook of Ford, Meany differs

Contrasting viewpoints were voiced in Labor Day weekend comments by President Gerald R. Ford and AFL-CIO President George Meany.

The top labor leader warned of a "deeper, more serious recession" unless the Ford administration alters its economic policies and promotes full production and employment.

Meany cited 8.2 per cent joblessness as "a time bomb ticking in the foundations of this society." He urged lower interest rates and extension of the present tax cut for another year.

"The administration's answer to the American people is that they will just have to accept a lower standard of living," Meany said.

"All they have worked for—the better life they've sought for their children—is being taken away from them by deliberate government policies" that have reduced consumer buying power and "priced the majority of families out of decent housing and higher education," Meany concluded.

Ford said brighter days ahead and praised workers' "willingness to sacrifice and agree to support responsible economic policies."

He said labor's record "provides inspiration and encouragement in this difficult time."

"It also gives those of us who work in government an extra incentive to honor the trust our working citizens have placed in us by ensuring wise, responsive and sensitive planning for the future."

AFL-CIO Pres. Meany said in separate remarks during the holiday weekend that he opposes Mr. Ford in the 1976 Presidential election and also will be against Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and "another George McGovern," referring to the Democrats' 1972 nominee.

There are skeptics at the Daley-Stevenson alliance.

"What do they have in common?" ask the cynics. Stevenson, it is assumed, would be laced by Daley's Irish jokes. The mayor hardly could be expected to be interested, it is said, in Stevenson's deep interest in foreign affairs.

Park levy $462,496

The Granite City Park Board of Commissioners last week adopted its 1975-76 fiscal year tax levy ordinance, designed to meet the park district's fiscal year budget of $754,832 which was adopted last month.

The total amount to be collected through taxes is $462,496.50, or $295,055.50 less than the amount budgeted.

"What the public sometimes does not realize," Board Secretary Frank Rea said, "is that the amount budgeted is not necessarily the full amount we have to collect because first we deduct anticipated receipts from the budget to enable us to come up with amounts we need to receive through a tax levy to meet our total budget figure."

Park district departments necessitating a tax levy to meet amounts budgeted, with amounts budgeted shown in parentheses are: $65,327 for administration ($62,327); $189,961 for the operation of parks ($201,683); $55,921 for operation of the swimming pool ($70,756); $124,482.50 for recreational programs and facilities ($208,136); $25,000 for municipal retirement ($25,000); $301,814 for general fund purposes ($449,071); $9,000 for liability insurance ($9,000); and $2,300 for an annual audit ($2,300).

"Collection of $61,125 for the retirement of bonds," Rea said, "is made through a separate levy ordinance."

Madison crime decreases

Major crime cases occurring in Madison during the month of July 1975 are: robbery 6-11, assault and battery 15-11, burglary 22-18, theft 41-16, and auto theft 4-3.

Third Ward Alderman Ronald Grzywacz said, "I think the police should be commended by the council for doing a good job. I think the handling of the recent Dollar Store armed robbery was an excellent job of police work."

The council concurred with Alderman Grzywacz.

Boys snatch wallet, cash

Howard Tadlock, 2001 E. 25th St., reported last week that two boys came to the rear door of his home and asked for a drink of water.

He said when he went to get the water, the boys entered and followed him. One showed him a $1 bill and said, "I'll bet you don't have one like this." Tadlock said he took his billfold from his pocket and one of the boys grabbed it. They both ran out the door and fled in different directions.

Criminal homicide, none either in July or August. On July 74 none, July 75 one; robbery 6-11, assault and battery 15-11, burglary 22-18, theft 41-16, and auto theft 4-3.

The council concurred with Alderman Grzywacz.

Police later were called to Jacobsmeier's Tavern on a report of boys attempting to cash a check which did not belong to them.

Officers stopped two 14-year-old boys nearby and the boys said a friend of theirs had been the one who took the wallet. They said the boy gave them $20 each to keep quiet.

Police searched around Tadlock's home and found his wallet, returning it and a total of $44 to the owner.

Fire believed to be arson

Fire, believed set by vandals, caused about $175 damage in the kitchen of the home of Billy Shelby, 2425 Edison Ave., last week.

The owner said she returned home to see a neighbor boy, about 7 years of age, run out the front door yelling, "Fire!" The fire department was called and reported two fires had been started inside the kitchen. Newspapers had been piled on the stove and two gas burners had been turned on. The other fire was under the kitchen table where newspapers had been piled and ignited.

The furnace thermostat was turned up and both telephones had been removed from their receivers.

Children playing in front of the house said they heard a popping noise and saw a flash inside the home. One boy went inside to investigate and reported seeing the fire.

Firemen were on the scene 25 minutes.

BOAT MOTOR STOLEN

A $400 outboard boat motor was stolen from the garage of Joe Kupac, 2422 Woodlawn Ave., last week. A lock on the garage door was cut to gain entry.

Senior citizen center to mark first year

The Granite City Township Senior Citizen Center, 1918 Edison Ave., will hold an open house Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to celebrate its first year of operation.

Senior citizens are being asked to stop by the center and sign the guest book by Tuesday, giving their name and date of birth.

During noon ceremonies on Wednesday a gift will be presented to the oldest man and woman registered.

Nelson Hagmann, township supervisor, and Edgar Paddock, president, of the senior citizens council, will present the gifts.

Refreshments will be served and the public is invited.

Sacred Heart lunch policy

Sacred Heart School in Granite City has announced its policy for free meals, free milk, and reduced price meals, for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch and Special Milk Programs.

School officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility:

For a family of one, the limit of income for free meals and free milk is $3,230, while the limit on family income for reduced price meals is $4,520; family of two, $4,240 and $5,930; three, $5,250 and $7,350; four, $6,260 and $8,770; five, $7,190 and $10,060.

Six, $8,110 and $11,360; seven, $8,950 and $12,530; eight, $9,790 and $13,700; nine, $10,500 and $14,770; ten, $11,310 and $15,840; eleven, $12,060 and $16,890; and twelve, $12,810 and $17,940. For each additional family member the income limit for free meals and free milk increases $750, and for reduced price meals increases $1,000.

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free meals, free milk and reduced price meals. In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 per cent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

School authorities must consider both the income of the family during the past 12 months and the family's current rate of income to determine which is the better indicator of need for free or reduced price meals to reflect family wage earners' present level of employment.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, it

Two sought in burglary here

Two young men, ages about 19 or 20, were seen leaving the apartment building at 2209 Maryville Road, last week, minutes before it was discovered an apartment in the building had been burglarized.

The men left in a light blue Dodge Charger, according to witnesses. The front door of the apartment of Ronda Mayes, Apt. 4, was kicked open and a tape player, two speakers, a tape holder and about 20 tape recordings were stolen. The loss was estimated at $500.

One youth sought was described as about 5 feet, 9 inches tall, slim, having dark complexion, long dark brown hair and a mustache. The other was described as about 5 feet, 7 inches tall, having medium-length brown hair and being the driver of the auto.

Philip Dortch to dental school

Philip Dortch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clate R. Dortch, 2811 Warren Ave., will enter Northwestern University Dental School at Chicago this fall. Dortch, a 1971 graduate of Granite City High School, earned a BS degree from the University of Illinois in May, 1975.

"The freshman class of 105 students is selected from over 4,000 applicants," according to Dr. Charles J. Vincent, associate dean and administrator of student affairs.

"It is a grave responsibility to select the most qualified students when so many talented young people are seeking admission. The entire administration is involved in the selection process, however, and we believe we have chosen an unusually competent group of students," he said.

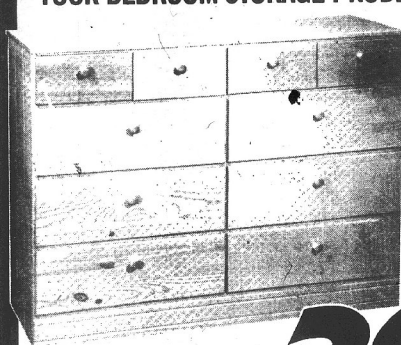

The Dental School is one of Northwestern's 11 schools.

TWO ARE CHARGED
Donald Moore, 17, of 5209 Maryville Road, was charged with criminal trespass to a motor vehicle after he allegedly was seen in a truck belonging to Delmar J. Rhoades, 1429 Norwood Drive, last week, and allegedly attempted to remove a tool box. He left in a car which was described to police who later stopped a car of that description and arrested Moore. Michael Pasgova, 19, of 2005 Lewis Lane, who also was in the vehicle, was charged with disorderly conduct.

SIUE awarded nursing grant

The School of Nursing at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been awarded a $17,122 grant for the continuation of its Professional Nurse Training Program. The grant received from the Public Health Service will be administered by Patricia R. Forn, dean of the SIUE School of Nursing and will terminate next July.

The traineeship grant offers assistance to registered nurses working toward a baccalaureate degree, according to Sister Maria Goski, assistant dean of the undergraduate program in the School of Nursing. It is awarded to selected registered nurse students in the last 12 months of the nursing program. The grant is usually distributed among five registered nurse students. Each award provides all tuition plus a $200 stipend per month.

"There is an obvious need for leaders and teachers in nursing," Sister Goski said. "Preparation for these functions includes a liberal education in an academic setting, that is, in a baccalaureate program in nursing. The grant helps those who have received training in nursing to broaden and professionalize their skills," she said.

Soccer Cougars win Amsterdam tourney

It'll be a tough act to top for the members of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer team, who will open their 14-game regular season Sept. 8 at Miami against Florida International University.

Cougar Bob Guelker's SIUE Cougars surprised the world (at least the European portion of it) of soccer by romping over eight straight opponents enroute to the championship of the International Youth Soccer Tournament held at Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

The tournament was part of Amsterdam's 700th birthday celebration.

The tournament, which drew well over 400 entries in age groups 8 through 24-years, attracted outstanding teams from Europe, Canada, South America and Mexico. Chief senior teams were three old—and bitter—St. Louis area teams: Quincy College and the Cougars, who entered two teams.

Said Guelker: "The Dutch, as well as the rest of the Europeans, grossly underestimated the growth and progress of American collegiate soccer. The outcome of the first days games appeared to stand the officials of the tournament."

In rampaging to the championship, the Cougars were truly impressive and had their hosts buzzing in admiration—and at times almost sheer disbelief.

First round action, two games the first day of the tourney, set the stage as the Cougars won a pair, the Bills took two and the Quincy Hawks won one and was given a forfeit victory. The Dutch hosts couldn't believe their eyes.

SIUE was in one bracket of the round-robin tourney, while St. Louis U. and Quincy were in the other.

The Cougars met and beat Quincy, 2-0, for the championship. Coach Harry Koenig's Bills fell victims to the tourney's favorites, the Quebec, Canada, Selects, in a rough quarter-final contest.

Guelker then knocked off the Canadians for the right to play SIUE in the final.

In fact, the SIUE junior varsity came within a penalty goal of staying in contention and for a shot at meeting the Cougar varsity in the title game.

Playing the entire tournament without their field general, John Stremlau, who is a member of the 1976 U.S. Olympic squad, the Cougars featured a well-rounded scoring punch and an airtight defense.

Not one goal was scored against the Cougars' pair of varsity goalies: Tony Giannico, and incoming freshman, Rob Robson.

Bill Schneke of Granite City was almost as effective for the JV's. In reserve, but not making the trip, was freshman Len Toebebusch, a standard prospect from McCluer North.

Bringing gasps was the scoring of first-year man, Greg Villa, who topped all participants in tourney scoring with nine goals, although he was set-down in the seventh contest and didn't play in the title game.

Villa, who is extremely aggressive, drew an official's ire in the semi-final game and was set-down.

Trailing Villa in scoring for the Cougars was Tim Twellman, inside left winger, with six goals and three assists. Villa also posted three assists. Villa could have a shot at breaking some SIUE scoring records held by John Carenza if he lives up to his promise displayed by his performances in Holland.

Twelve Cougars had a hand in the scoring: John Zachais posted four goals and two assists; Steve Cacciatore was 3 and 5; Mark Moran, 3-5; Pat Horne, 1-2; Gene Mishalow, 1-0; Tom Don van, 1-1; Greg Makowski, 1-2; Mike Smallwood, 1-0; John Schaeferling, 0-1; and Tim Holstein, 2-0.

Standouts on the defensive team were Makowski, Mishalow, Smallwood and Tom Donovan; however, the SIUE defensive alignment isn't jelled by any means, says Guelker.

The Cougar regular season schedule for the year opens against Florida International University at Miami at 3 p.m. Monday, Sept. 8. That is followed by a Friday, Sept. 12 game against Clemson University at Clemson, S.C., at 4 p.m. The first home contest will be an exhibition game against Mackenzie University of British Columbia, Sept. 15, starting at 5 p.m. at Cougar Field.

Merchants and Petrillo take holiday titles

The Metro-East Merchants' squad and the Petrillo Produce team were the winners yesterday of men's and women's Labor Day holiday softball tournaments, respectively. The meets were hosted by the Granite City Park District.

The Merchants fought through a rugged, 24-team lineup to win the men's honors by capturing seven consecutive games.

Four games were all that were required for the Petrillo women's team to win a seven-team tournament Sunday and Monday.

In the men's final, the Merchants met Millie & Mickey's, 19-9. Millie & Mickey's defeated Long Branch Tavern 21-9 and then lost to the Petrillo 10-9. Home to fall into the losers' bracket.

In that bracket, Millie & Mickey's took consecutive games against American Legion Post 307 (19-3), Croatan Home Team One (16-0), VFW Post 1300 (16-0), Granite City Realty (19-5), Sammy's (15-9), Victory Tavern (6-0), and Mendoza Sporting Goods (17-13) to emerge into the final game.

The Merchants finished with an unblemished record, topping Lord Nelson's (11-0), St. John's (17-1), McDonald's (12-4), Sammy's (13-2) and Mendoza (14-4) before winning the crown.

In the women's tourney, Petrillo defeated the Angels (15-0), Bill's Auto Body (14-0) and Kentucky Fried Chicken (5-3) before meeting Bill's Auto Body again for the championship and winning 2-0.

Attend school of needleart

Mrs. Helen Daley of Daley's Gift Shop in Madison and her mother, Mrs. Laura Koller of Smith, Ill., have returned from West Townsend, Mass., where they attended the Elias Williams School of Needleart.

The school, called "Homer House," once belonged to famous painter Winslow Homer. Mrs. Daley said it is the only resident school of needleart in the country.

The program offers professionals, teachers and advanced students a chance to study the craft and learn correct and new methods under the supervision of noted instructors, she said.

Elias Williams, founder of the school, stresses methods and standards intended to convey knowledge and skills of canvas work and embroidery, using the finest materials and techniques, the participants said.

Mrs. Daley and her mother, who also attended classes last year, were awarded their second certificate of merit from the school. Both are now titled to wear the school's silver thimble emblem, set with three emerald stones.

Impressive 'entrances' to this area at I-270, Venice

Some entrances to this community have created somewhat negative initial impressions of the Quad-Cities, but a more positive pattern is emerging.

The newly-completed divided four-lane section of Illinois Route 203 between Interstate 270 at Mitchell and the Namekagon-Pontoon Roads intersection in Granite City will provide a bright new "front door" to this area.

A similarly attractive entrance is being created farther to the west. The Great River (Federal Aid Route 151) will extend from its present terminus at the Granite City Army Installation's main gate, continuing across

'No free lunch' warning by FDR about Social Security

Press-Record Washington Bureau — The problems that confront the Social Security system today were at least partly evident 40 years ago when the program was signed into law.

"We can never insure 100 per cent of the population against 100 per cent of the hazards and vicissitudes of life," President Franklin D. Roosevelt said at that occasion. "The 1935 Social Security Act was a simple plan compared to the complex maze today. It was designed to be self-liquidating, through contributions from the employed and their employers."

The initial goal was to pay a modest sum to persons over 65 who chose not to continue to work full time. By 1939, the act had been expanded to pay benefits to widows, widowers and dependent children. In the 1950s, the old age survivor benefits were altered to also cover the disabled.

Congress in 1956 permitted Social Security benefits to be paid to women at the age of 62 instead of 65. Men were granted the same privilege in 1961, and a watershed was reached in 1965 when Congress added hospital and medical benefits — Medicare — to the Social Security Act.

The year 1975 represents another major watershed. The program is going broad, projections show. It cannot support itself by the contributory system, as originally conceived.

For the first time since its inception, the trust fund — the financial cushion — is

3rd party would hurt the GOP

(National Republican Congressional Committee)
How a third party in a political race can clobber a Republican has been pointed up in a new study by Dr. Pierre Purves, statistical director of the Republican Congressional Committee.

Purves' research showed that at least 20 Republican congressional candidates and four Republican congressional candidates in the general elections of 1974, plus a special election House seat, were lost to Democrats.

The upsets were laid to the intrusion of third-party candidates.

In Florida, Republican Jack Eckhardt lost the Senate race to Democrat Richard Stone by 44,375 votes, or 2.5 per cent of the total vote.

The conservative American Party candidate, John Grady, garnered 282,689 votes, or 15.7 per cent of the total vote. Had Grady stayed out of the race he had no chance of winning, Eckhardt would have received a comfortable victory.

In staunchly Republican Vermont, GOP senatorial candidate Richard Mallary, former speaker of the Vermont House and U.S. representative-at-large for the state, lost to Democrat Patrick Leahy, who had never held public office of any kind.

Mallary lost by 4,400 votes. A practically unknown candidate entered the race on the Liberty Union ticket — and drew off a critical 6,000 votes which could have retained the seat for Republicans.

"Shucks... they said it would blow over by this time."

In the House, one of the biggest upsets occurred when Rep. James Grover, six-term congressman from the 2nd District of New York, was defeated by Democratic challenger Thomas J. Downey. Downey, then age 25, had not even graduated from law school.

The 5,000-vote difference would have been overcome if Conservative Party candidate Neil Greene had not diverted nearly 8,000 votes normally going Republican.

Similarly, four-term Rep. Dan Kuykendall, of the 8th

District of Tennessee, lost to his Democratic opponent, Harold E. Ford, by a mere 122 votes. Approximately 1,000 votes were siphoned off by a virtually unknown woman candidate who organized the last-minute write-in campaign.

Stephen M. Harmsen, the GOP candidate for the 2nd District of Utah, was defeated by Allan Howe, the now Democratic incumbent, by nearly 5,500 votes.

An American Independent candidate, again with no chance of winning with only 3.0 per cent of the total, attracted 6,500 away from Republican Harmsen. Rep. William Widnall, representative of the 7th District of New Jersey for over a quarter of a century, lost to Democrat Andrew Maguire by 8,400 votes.

But for an entrant who called himself "Independent Citizens' Action," Widnall would very likely have won re-election, for this diversion lured 9,600 votes.

Final reminder — the special Congressional election in the 12th District of Penn-sylvia in February 1974? Democrat John Murtha scraped by Republican Harry M. Foy by 122 votes. The 472 votes cast for the Constitutional Party candidate could have changed the outcome of this close and, for the GOP, disappointing race.

If third-party voters were looking for conservative candidates, they struck a bad bargain.

Their splinter votes made possible the election of what often turned out to be big-

For most Americans, this problem is not new — they're fed up. But few know in detail how bad things really are. Take a look at some specific examples.

INFLATION — In the five years since 1970, the cost of living has increased 38 per cent. That is, it now takes $1.38 to buy what $1 would buy then.

Until recently, per capita income managed to keep pace with the ahead of inflation, going from $3,945 in 1970 to $5,722 now — a gain of 45 per cent. But, last year, the average American worker lost purchasing power for the first time in 15 years.

Per capita income increased 9 per cent, while the cost of living went up 11 per cent, or a net loss in purchasing power of $122, or 2 per cent.

TAXES — Taxes have been the fastest-rising item in the family budget for over five years.

State and local taxes per capita have increased 48 per cent since 1970; the federal income tax is up 42 per cent.

HOUSING — The cost of a four-year college degree at a state school has gone from an average of $5,448 in 1970 to $10,000 now, and that's for one child.

For a private institution, the cost is even higher.

Meanwhile, the maximum Social Security tax payment has gone up 120 per cent, with more rises in sight.

EDUCATION — The cost of a four-year college degree at a state school has gone from an average of $5,448 in 1970 to $10,000 now, and that's for one child.

For a private institution, the cost is even higher.

Meanwhile, the maximum Social Security tax payment has gone up 120 per cent, with more rises in sight.

Serious crime is tallying its biggest increase in 14 years

By CLARENCE M. KELLEY
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Some well-meaning proposals to further safeguard the privacy of individuals unfortunately threaten seriously the law enforcement profession's ability to combat crime.

These efforts in behalf of privacy persist in the face of an alarming rise in nationwide levels of lawlessness in nearly every category of serious crime.

Surely, crime conditions implore us to strengthen, not weaken, police resources.

Overall, serious crime in 1974 recorded its largest increase in 14 years.

Violent crimes jumped 11 per cent, while property crimes soared 17 per cent.

Rural, suburban and large metropolitan areas alike similarly reported substantial increases in crime — as did each of the nation's four geographical regions.

The most potentially harmful proposals to law enforcement efforts are those that would, after stipulated periods of varying length, seal criminal offender records, commonly known as "rap sheets."

These proposals, by law enforcement agencies, have the very best intention: to prevent a rehabilitated offender or an arrested and unconvicted person's record from exposing him to embarrassment or worse forms of public notice for the remainder of his lawful life.

However noble the purpose, the proposals to seal certain criminal offender records strike harshly at a pivotal resource to law enforcement investigations.

These records are of invaluable assistance to law enforcement agencies, which commonly employ them at the outset of many investigations to quickly winnow logical suspects from dozens and even hundreds of possibilities.

Criminal offender records permit this to be done by virtue of the positive, pinpoint identifying data only they contain.

Indeed, should many criminal offender records be sealed and their examination delayed in the fast-moving pace of most criminal investigations, law enforcement agencies are obligated to turn to the personal recollections of the investigating officers or resort to other less exact institutional-type records.

Needless to say, such conditions could very easily expand the risks of invasion of privacy which the proposals are designed to minimize.

Furthermore, unless criminal rehabilitation programs show dramatic and unexpected improvement, it is a fact established by countless criminal recidivist studies that persons once involved with some significant violation of the law are much more likely to commit a crime than those who have no police record.

One has only to look at the sordid lawbreaking backgrounds of police killers to grasp the impact criminal recidivism has on the private of police investigations.

In the murders of 88 officers during the period 1964-72, for example, of the police killers identified, 42 per cent had been previously arrested for a violent crime, 59 per cent had been convicted of a prior criminal charge, and 77 per cent had been arrested before on a criminal charge.

Yet some of the proposals to seal criminal offender records would deny the police the critical, possibly lifesaving, information on the criminal record of the offender.

It must be pursued with constant vigilance.

But in doing so, let us ask ourselves some frank questions: Is any degree of privacy — achieved by sealing certain criminal records of the few — worth the added jeopardy this would bring to the many law-abiding citizens and to a growing legion of persons who no longer feel safe from crime on the streets of their neighborhoods and even in their homes and places of employment?

Let us not privacy and the many other benefits of a mature society begin with the control of rampant criminality?

As a result, sources of privacy are being whittled away. The information interest only have begun to appear more attractive.

One of the reasons algae is so attractive as a potential source of nutrients is that the production process is so simple.

The energy is sunlight, which converts the carbohydrate of the algae into protein and vitamins — particularly the essential vitamin B series.

Several types of algae are particularly rich in nutrients. The blue-green variety, known scientifically as Spirulina, for example, is 70 per cent protein.

The green algae, known scientifically as Chlorella or Scenedesmus, is 60 per cent protein.

On the other hand, wheat flour is only 12 per cent protein; chick peas are but 22 per cent protein.

To produce the protein, the algae are harvested and dried in a green powder. The powder is then added directly to feed for cattle, sheep, pigs, fish and poultry.

Two juveniles charged

Two juvenile boys have been charged with burglary and face juvenile court action in connection with a burglary between 6:30 p.m. Monday and 12:30 a.m. today at the home of Herschel Box, 2406 Illinois Ave.

The boys, both age 16, were reported seen placing guns in the rafters of a garage and authorities were notified. One boy is an escapee from the Illinois Department of Corrections and the other is on parole, it was related.

Police recovered weapons and ammunition valued at more than $700 which they alleged were stolen from the Box home.

Both rear doors of that home were pried open and a front window was broken open. Two burned books of matches were found inside, believed used for light by the burglars. Kitchen cabinets and paneling in the kitchen were scorched.

Two soft drink bottles were placed in a freezer and exploded, damaging the freezer. Both rear doors were left open when the burglars left.

Recovered were two shotguns, two automatic pistols, two whips and an assortment of ammunition.

Something Great is Happening

The great news is we're joining the Gallery of Homes, a national network of real estate professionals specializing in residential sales.

Today, real estate is a national business. The buyer of your home may be an executive 2,000 miles away who's about to find out he's being transferred to your city.

Or, perhaps, you'll be relocating soon and would like to do your preliminary shopping from the comfort of our Gallery. You'll still find the same staff of competent professionals and the same friendly atmosphere here. Joining Gallery of Homes just means we're getting even better.

OFFICER FRIENDLY AND FRIEND. Heading down the Current River in the lead canoe is "Officer Friendly" Glenn Wright, seated with straw hat in the stern, and Explorer Danny Bowers in the bow. Members of Police Explorer Post 10-33 spent last week on a float trip down the Current and Jacks Fork rivers in southern Missouri. In the background canoes from left to right are Explorers Rick Knight, Kyle Smith, Bryan Warren and Mark Hoffman. Sister Mary Michael and Sister Ann, advisers to Explorer Post 9, sponsored by St. Elizabeth Hospital, and members of the nursing post, joined the police Explorers for the final three days of the trip.

CHOW TIME. Members of Explorer Post 10-33 spent six days on the rivers of southern Missouri last week. Fixing dinner is Danny Bowers, behind the table, and brother, Steve, at right preparing dinner. In the background is Kevin Harmon, securing a canoe. Other members of the post on the trip were Mark Hoffman, Kyle Smith, Bryan Warren, and Rick Knight. They were accompanied by Officer Glenn Wright and Paul Hoffman, adult leaders. The group enjoyed cookouts, swimming, fishing and an occasional unscheduled dunking in the cold, spring-fed rivers.

Encephalitis cases mount

Common sense precautions against mosquito bites with personal protective measures and by eliminating sources where larvae breed are being emphasized by health authorities after reports of 15 possible new cases of St. Louis-type encephalitis (sleeping sickness) were made this weekend, raising confirmed or suspected cases in Illinois to 72, including 22 cases in Southern Illinois.

Paul T. Hawkins of the Madison County Sanitation and Pollution Department said the Culex Pipiens, the mosquito responsible for spreading the St. Louis strain of the disease, deposits its larvae in rain barrels, tubs, catch basins, cesspools, ditches, ornamental pools, bird baths and other collections of polluted water. Residents should avoid areas of standing water, particularly at dusk when mosquitoes are most prevalent, use insect repellent if out after dark and wear long-sleeved and long-legged clothing. The female Culex Pipiens bite mainly at night and can infest houses. Residents should repair screens and inspect yards for areas of stagnant water to minimize the risks. Many area communities are stepping up their mosquito fogging services, it was learned. Granite City is among these.

Gary Koch of the Springfield office of the Department of Local Government Affairs said today his department is assisting communities in purchasing more effective and economical mosquito-preventive chemicals and equipment. He urges communities spraying for mosquitoes to exercise caution in purchasing insecticides, citing that past experience has shown that some chemical companies sell overpriced, diluted chemicals and products that violate federal Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) standards.

Previous surveys have also noted some companies push outdated and less effective equipment. The newest and most successful mosquito spraying devices are ultra-low volume (ULV) machines, Koch said.

All Illinois communities south of a line running from Charleston to Pittsfield have been requested to initiate immediate preventive and corrective measure to prevent or control the spread of the disease, the official said.

Purchasing information concerning equipment or chemicals may be obtained by calling Koch at 217-782-7586, or Tom Bevil at Marion, 618-997-4371.

Two new suspected cases of encephalitis involving a 77-year-old North St. Louis woman and a 37-year-old South St. Louis man were reported last week and are being investigated. Conclusive laboratory tests will be completed in about three weeks, according to Dr. Helen Bruce, St. Louis city health commissioner.

Also last week it was learned that Fernin Gonzales, 72, of Granite City, a patient in Jewish Hospital since Aug. 18, is believed by his physician to have encephalitis. Again, results of tests will not be available for two to three weeks.

The St. Louis strain of Encephalitis, a virus, has symptoms of headache, lethargy, dizziness, stiff neck, nausea and fever, which can be minor. They usually appear several days after the victim has been bitten.

Conference by groups affected by dam delay

Proponents of early reconstruction of Locks and Dam 26 on the Mississippi River near Alton will meet at the Airport Hilton Hotel in St. Louis on Friday.

More than 250 business, community and labor leaders from throughout the Midwest have been invited to attend the conference by an ad hoc group of 16 business and labor executives representing farm cooperatives, grain companies, electric utilities, coal companies, water transportation companies and organized labor.

The letter of invitation said that the Locks and Dam 26 controversy has become a "cause celebre" for certain railroads and environmental groups.

The project is currently being held up by a federal court injunction sought by 21 Western railroads and two environmental groups. The first portion of the meeting, which will begin at 10 a.m., will include brief reports on the status of the lawsuit, the status of current legislative efforts to clear up alleged defects in the authorization process, and the expected timetable of required reports and policy decisions by the Corps of Engineers and other governmental agencies.

Other reports will be made on the impact on consumers, farmers, users of electricity and others aided by waterborne commerce. Representatives of organized labor will define the effect of non-construction on total jobs.

Following the open morning session the gathering will go into an executive session during a noon luncheon to discuss future plans to address the Locks and Dam 26 issue "in a manner commensurate with its magnitude by railroads and environmentalists into a problem of national significance and attention," a Water Resources Congress spokesman said.
